

FEATURED TITLE

SIX60

Six60 formed, as many New Zealand bands do, in Dunedin. In 2008, three of the five members flatted together at 660 Castle Street (one of the more infamous student-populated streets in the city), even turning the bedroom of drummer Eli into a makeshift recording studio. Since then, Six60 have quietly amassed a loyal following, online and touring the country generating great anticipation for this, their debut album. The Kiwi mix of roots, reggae, soul rock and dubstep is produced by Tiki Taane.
